This checklist helps students prepare a complete application for the Student Financial Assistance Scheme. Tick each item before submission to reduce the chance of delay or rejection.

A. Before You Apply

- I confirmed my programme and institution participate in the scheme.
- I checked the income ceiling for this academic year and confirmed my family's eligibility.
- I read the current year notification and note where it differs from previous years.
- I identified the application window and closing date.
- I have a valid bank account in my name for disbursement.

B. Documents to Prepare

- Proof of identity (any accepted document, e.g., student ID, Aadhaar or equivalent).
- Proof of enrollment for the current academic year.
- Income evidence (income certificate or supported declaration as specified).
- Most recent academic record / mark sheet.
- Bank account proof (passbook or statement showing account holder name).
- Special needs documentation, if applying for special needs support.
- Any district- or state-issued certificates relevant to priority criteria.

C. Completing the Application

1. Enter personal details exactly as on your identity proof.
2. Enter the programme, institution and enrollment details accurately.
3. Provide a current, reachable mobile number and email address.
4. Answer all eligibility questions truthfully; false declarations disqualify.

5. Attach every document in the required format and size.
6. Review the entire application before submitting.
7. Note your application reference number and save the acknowledgment.
8. Submit the institution verification request before the closing date.

D. After Submission

- I will follow up with my student welfare office for verification status.
- I will check the portal regularly for queries or requests for clarification.
- I will respond to any clarification requests within the given time.
- I know my application ID and how to track status online.
- I will report any change in enrollment or institution immediately.

E. Common Reasons for Delay or Rejection

Issue	How to Avoid It
Incomplete documentation	Complete the Document Checklist before applying.
Document format or size errors	Use the accepted formats and sizes stated in the portal guidance.
Mismatched personal details	Enter details exactly as per identity proof.
Missing institution verification	Submit the verification request within the window.
Untrue declarations	Answer all questions truthfully; declarations are checked.
Unreachable contact details	Provide a valid mobile number and check messages regularly.
Bank account issues	Ensure the account is active and in your name.

F. Help and Support

If you need help at any stage, contact your institution's student welfare office first, or use the Scholarship Helpdesk on the HEIRS portal. Keep your application reference number ready when asking for help.
