This operational procedures gives effect to Faculty Recruitment and Promotion Rules and covers the purposes, responsibilities and operating expectations associated with Recruitment. It should be read alongside supporting guidance and any subsequent circulars.

Introduction

This document accompanies Faculty Recruitment and Promotion Rules and provides operational detail for Recruitment, Promotion. Its purpose is to help those responsible for implementation act correctly, consistently and on time.

Issued in support of Faculty Recruitment and Promotion Rules, this guide translates the framework into practical steps for implementation. It is intended to be read alongside the principal document and any related circulars.

Scope of Application

Except where expressly stated otherwise, the guidance applies uniformly across Directorate of Collegiate Education, and institutions should treat it as the reference point for day-to-day decisions on Recruitment.

The guidance applies to all institutions and stakeholders falling within the scope of Faculty Recruitment and Promotion Rules. Specific requirements vary according to institutional type, size and stage of implementation.

Readiness

Implementation should be preceded by a readiness review covering Recruitment, resourcing and staff awareness, so that obligations are understood before they take effect.

Key Steps

A staged approach is recommended, beginning with assessment and planning, followed by rollout, monitoring of early experience, and refinement in light of feedback before wider adoption.

1. Apply the arrangements and maintain the required records.
2. Report on a regular cycle and act on review findings.
3. Appoint a lead officer and notify Directorate of Collegiate Education of the designated contact.
4. Conduct an initial readiness review against Recruitment, Promotion.
5. Brief governing bodies, staff and relevant stakeholders on the expectations.

Allocation of Responsibility

Clear segregation of duties is encouraged, with institutional leadership providing oversight, the designated office managing administration, and internal controls verifying that practice matches policy.

Procedure

Institutions should maintain a written procedure capturing each step of the process, including eligibility checks, documentation, decision-making and appeals, consistent with the provisions of Faculty Recruitment and Promotion Rules.

Reporting

Reports should be submitted in the prescribed format and within the stated deadlines, summarising compliance, outcomes, exceptions and any corrective actions taken.

Conclusion

Effective implementation of Faculty Recruitment and Promotion Rules will depend on sustained institutional commitment and close coordination between Directorate of Collegiate Education and the sector. Institutions are encouraged to embed the arrangements described here into their normal planning and review cycles.
