Core Provisions

The document mandates periodic self-assessment against Faculty Exchange, disclosure of material information to Directorate of Collegiate Education, and corrective action where institutional performance falls short of the stated expectations.

Key provisions establish minimum standards for Faculty Exchange, define the responsibilities of institutional leadership, and require documented arrangements for International Mobility.

Implementation Framework

A dedicated implementation pathway, covering readiness assessment, capacity building and progressive rollout, has been designed to allow institutions of varying size and maturity to comply.

Implementation will proceed through phased institutional adoption, supported by professional development, shared guidance and a common reporting calendar established by Directorate of Collegiate Education.

Roles and Responsibilities

Clear allocation of responsibility is expected at institutional level, with Directorate of Collegiate Education acting as the coordinating authority for evaluation, escalation and cross-institutional learning.

Heads of institutions bear overall responsibility for embedding Faculty Exchange, supported by designated coordinators, academic bodies and administrative units within each institution.

Performance Monitoring

Directorate of Collegiate Education will review implementation against agreed indicators, publish consolidated outcomes, and engage institutions that require additional support or show exemplary practice.

Conclusion

Effective implementation of Faculty Exchange and International Mobility Scheme will depend on sustained institutional commitment and close coordination between Directorate of Collegiate Education and the sector. Institutions are encouraged to embed the arrangements described here into their normal planning and review cycles.
