Issued in 2024 by Higher Education Department under reference HEIRS/POL/2024/054, this implementation guidelines establishes the arrangements supporting Lifelong Learning Policy for Higher Education. In scope are Lifelong Learning, Continuing Education, Adult Education, together with related expectations for institutions and stakeholders.

Purpose of this Guide

Issued in support of Lifelong Learning Policy for Higher Education, this guide translates the framework into practical steps for implementation. It is intended to be read alongside the principal document and any related circulars.

This guide supports institutions, officials and beneficiaries in applying the provisions of Lifelong Learning Policy for Higher Education consistently. It explains eligibility, expected procedures and the supporting arrangements that govern day-to-day practice.

To Whom It Applies

Covered entities are expected to align their internal procedures with the expectations set out here, adapting them only where local conditions or statutory requirements justify a documented variation.

Except where expressly stated otherwise, the guidance applies uniformly across Higher Education Department, and institutions should treat it as the reference point for day-to-day decisions on Lifelong Learning.

Preconditions

Eligible participants should meet the conditions set out in Lifelong Learning Policy for Higher Education, provide the required information, and comply with the procedural expectations described in this guide.

Sequence of Actions

Institutions should first designate accountability, then prepare supporting documentation, brief staff, apply the arrangements and schedule a formal review of the resulting practice.

1. Brief governing bodies, staff and relevant stakeholders on the expectations.
2. Apply the arrangements and maintain the required records.
3. Report on a regular cycle and act on review findings.
4. Appoint a lead officer and notify Higher Education Department of the designated contact.
5. Conduct an initial readiness review against Lifelong Learning, Continuing Education.

Allocation of Responsibility

Named officials within each institution are accountable for operational application, for reporting variances, and for ensuring that staff understand and follow the expectations set out in Lifelong Learning Policy for Higher Education.

Operational Procedure

Institutions should maintain a written procedure capturing each step of the process, including eligibility checks, documentation, decision-making and appeals, consistent with the provisions of Lifelong Learning Policy for Higher Education.

Reporting Requirements

Reports should be submitted in the prescribed format and within the stated deadlines, summarising compliance, outcomes, exceptions and any corrective actions taken.

Way Forward

The success of this policy rests on shared understanding and consistent application. Higher Education Department stands ready to support institutions in implementing Lifelong Learning and looks forward to reviewing collective progress.
