Eligibility and Preconditions

Prior to implementation, institutions should confirm readiness in respect of Placement, Recruitment, designate the officers responsible, and document any existing arrangements that will be retained or replaced.

Sequence of Actions

A staged approach is recommended, beginning with assessment and planning, followed by rollout, monitoring of early experience, and refinement in light of feedback before wider adoption.

1. Conduct an initial readiness review against Placement, Recruitment.
2. Brief governing bodies, staff and relevant stakeholders on the expectations.
3. Apply the arrangements and maintain the required records.
4. Report on a regular cycle and act on review findings.
5. Appoint a lead officer and notify Higher Education Department of the designated contact.

Allocation of Responsibility

Clear segregation of duties is encouraged, with institutional leadership providing oversight, the designated office managing administration, and internal controls verifying that practice matches policy.

Procedure

Institutions should maintain a written procedure capturing each step of the process, including eligibility checks, documentation, decision-making and appeals, consistent with the provisions of Placement and Recruitment Policy for Higher Education.

Submission Cycle

Institutions are expected to retain supporting evidence for the reporting period and to make it available for verification by Higher Education Department or its authorised representatives.

Closing Note

Effective implementation of Placement and Recruitment Policy for Higher Education will depend on sustained institutional commitment and close coordination between Higher Education Department and the sector. Institutions are encouraged to embed the arrangements described here into their normal planning and review cycles.
