Introduction

This document accompanies Procurement and Tender Rules for Universities and provides operational detail for Procurement, Tendering. Its purpose is to help those responsible for implementation act correctly, consistently and on time.

This guide supports institutions, officials and beneficiaries in applying the provisions of Procurement and Tender Rules for Universities consistently. It explains eligibility, expected procedures and the supporting arrangements that govern day-to-day practice.

To Whom It Applies

Except where expressly stated otherwise, the guidance applies uniformly across Higher Education Department, and institutions should treat it as the reference point for day-to-day decisions on Procurement.

Except where expressly stated otherwise, the guidance applies uniformly across Higher Education Department, and institutions should treat it as the reference point for day-to-day decisions on Procurement.

Preconditions

Implementation should be preceded by a readiness review covering Procurement, resourcing and staff awareness, so that obligations are understood before they take effect.

Sequence of Actions

The recommended sequence is to establish governance, communicate expectations, adopt the required arrangements for Procurement, verify compliance, and report outcomes through the agreed channel.

1. Conduct an initial readiness review against Procurement, Tendering.

2. Brief governing bodies, staff and relevant stakeholders on the expectations.
3. Apply the arrangements and maintain the required records.
4. Report on a regular cycle and act on review findings.
5. Appoint a lead officer and notify Higher Education Department of the designated contact.

Roles in Implementation

Clear segregation of duties is encouraged, with institutional leadership providing oversight, the designated office managing administration, and internal controls verifying that practice matches policy.

Operational Procedure

All procedural steps should be documented and time-bound, with responsibilities assigned at each stage and escalation paths agreed for complex or exceptional cases.

Reporting

Institutions are expected to retain supporting evidence for the reporting period and to make it available for verification by Higher Education Department or its authorised representatives.

Conclusion

Effective implementation of Procurement and Tender Rules for Universities will depend on sustained institutional commitment and close coordination between Higher Education Department and the sector. Institutions are encouraged to embed the arrangements described here into their normal planning and review cycles.
