This compliance guidelines gives effect to Anti-Ragging and Campus Safety Regulation and covers the purposes, responsibilities and operating expectations associated with Anti-Ragging. It should be read alongside supporting guidance and any subsequent circulars.

Introduction

Issued in support of Anti-Ragging and Campus Safety Regulation, this guide translates the framework into practical steps for implementation. It is intended to be read alongside the principal document and any related circulars.

This guide supports institutions, officials and beneficiaries in applying the provisions of Anti-Ragging and Campus Safety Regulation consistently. It explains eligibility, expected procedures and the supporting arrangements that govern day-to-day practice.

Scope of Application

Except where expressly stated otherwise, the guidance applies uniformly across Student Welfare, and institutions should treat it as the reference point for day-to-day decisions on Anti-Ragging.

The guidance applies to all institutions and stakeholders falling within the scope of Anti-Ragging and Campus Safety Regulation. Specific requirements vary according to institutional type, size and stage of implementation.

Preconditions

Implementation should be preceded by a readiness review covering Anti-Ragging, resourcing and staff awareness, so that obligations are understood before they take effect.

Sequence of Actions

The recommended sequence is to establish governance, communicate expectations, adopt the required arrangements for Anti-Ragging, verify compliance, and report outcomes through the agreed channel.

1. Conduct an initial readiness review against Anti-Ragging, Campus Safety.
2. Brief governing bodies, staff and relevant stakeholders on the expectations.
3. Apply the arrangements and maintain the required records.
4. Report on a regular cycle and act on review findings.
5. Appoint a lead officer and notify Student Welfare of the designated contact.

Allocation of Responsibility

Clear segregation of duties is encouraged, with institutional leadership providing oversight, the designated office managing administration, and internal controls verifying that practice matches policy.

Operating Steps

Operational practice must follow an auditable sequence: application or initiation, verification, decision, communication, recording and, where applicable, renewal or extension.

Reporting Requirements

Reports should be submitted in the prescribed format and within the stated deadlines, summarising compliance, outcomes, exceptions and any corrective actions taken.

Conclusion

Effective implementation of Anti-Ragging and Campus Safety Regulation will depend on sustained institutional commitment and close coordination between Student Welfare and the sector. Institutions are encouraged to embed the arrangements described here into their normal planning and review cycles.
