

Girls' Education Promotion Scheme — Scheme Guidelines

Document Type	Scheme Guidelines	Reference Record	sw-sch-2023-009
Department	Student Welfare	Reference	SW/SCH/2023/009
Year	2023	Status	Active

Demo / Synthetic Document: This document was created solely for demonstration of the HEIRS project. It is not an official government order, regulation, policy, scheme, or legal document. All content is synthetic and presented only for project presentation purposes.

This scheme guidelines gives effect to Girls' Education Promotion Scheme and covers the purposes, responsibilities and operating expectations associated with Girls Education. It should be read alongside supporting guidance and any subsequent circulars.

Background and Scope

The scheme landscape has evolved considerably in recent years, and institutions under Student Welfare have responded with renewed attention to Girls Education, Enrollment, Retention. This scheme guidelines provides the framework needed to guide consistent practice across the sector.

The scheme landscape has evolved considerably in recent years, and institutions under Student Welfare have responded with renewed attention to Girls Education, Enrollment, Retention. This scheme guidelines provides the framework needed to guide consistent practice across the sector.

Purpose and Intent

This scheme guidelines is intended to translate the objectives of Girls' Education Promotion Scheme into actionable direction for institutions, officials and other stakeholders, ensuring that Girls Education is pursued in a structured and accountable manner.

By setting out the rationale, scope and operating expectations for Girls Education, the document aims to reduce ambiguity, support institutional planning and improve the quality of Enrollment across the system.

Objectives

The principal objectives are to strengthen Girls Education, harmonise institutional approaches to Enrollment, and establish measurable indicators through which progress can be tracked and reported.

This document seeks to enhance institutional capacity for Girls Education, Enrollment, promote transparency in decision-making, and ensure that resources committed to related initiatives are used effectively.

Coverage

The provisions apply to all universities and colleges under Student Welfare. Sector partners, including employers and professional bodies, are expected to support implementation within their respective spheres.

This document covers all activities and stakeholders associated with Girls Education within institutions affiliated to Student Welfare, together with arrangements for monitoring, review and reporting of outcomes.

Principal Provisions

Key provisions establish minimum standards for Girls Education, define the responsibilities of institutional leadership, and require documented arrangements for Enrollment.

Institutions are required to integrate Girls Education, Enrollment into annual planning cycles, designate accountable officers, and maintain records demonstrating compliance with the expectations set out here.

Implementation Pathway

Implementation will proceed through phased institutional adoption, supported by professional development, shared guidance and a common reporting calendar established by Student Welfare.

A dedicated implementation pathway, covering readiness assessment, capacity building and progressive rollout, has been designed to allow institutions of varying size and maturity to comply.

Institutional Responsibilities

Heads of institutions bear overall responsibility for embedding Girls Education, supported by designated coordinators, academic bodies and administrative units within each institution.

Heads of institutions bear overall responsibility for embedding Girls Education, supported by designated coordinators, academic bodies and administrative units within each institution.

Performance Monitoring

Monitoring covers both compliance and quality, combining documented evidence with stakeholder feedback to build a complete picture of institutional performance over time.

Way Forward

The success of this scheme rests on shared understanding and consistent application. Student Welfare stands ready to support institutions in implementing Girls Education and looks forward to reviewing collective progress.