This document accompanies Enterprise Resource Planning Policy and provides operational detail for ERP, Implementation. Its purpose is to help those responsible for implementation act correctly, consistently and on time.

To Whom It Applies

The guidance applies to all institutions and stakeholders falling within the scope of Enterprise Resource Planning Policy. Specific requirements vary according to institutional type, size and stage of implementation.

Except where expressly stated otherwise, the guidance applies uniformly across University Administration, and institutions should treat it as the reference point for day-to-day decisions on ERP.

Eligibility and Preconditions

Eligible participants should meet the conditions set out in Enterprise Resource Planning Policy, provide the required information, and comply with the procedural expectations described in this guide.

Implementation Steps

Institutions should first designate accountability, then prepare supporting documentation, brief staff, apply the arrangements and schedule a formal review of the resulting practice.

1. Appoint a lead officer and notify University Administration of the designated contact.
2. Conduct an initial readiness review against ERP, Implementation.
3. Brief governing bodies, staff and relevant stakeholders on the expectations.
4. Apply the arrangements and maintain the required records.
5. Report on a regular cycle and act on review findings.

Responsibilities

Named officials within each institution are accountable for operational application, for reporting variances, and for ensuring that staff understand and follow the expectations set out in Enterprise Resource Planning Policy.

Procedure

All procedural steps should be documented and time-bound, with responsibilities assigned at each stage and escalation paths agreed for complex or exceptional cases.

Submission Cycle

Institutions are expected to retain supporting evidence for the reporting period and to make it available for verification by University Administration or its authorised representatives.

Closing Note

This document is designed to evolve with institutional experience. Feedback from stakeholders will shape refinements, ensuring that the framework remains practical, proportionate and fit for purpose.
