Key Provisions

Key provisions establish minimum standards for Regional Universities, define the responsibilities of institutional leadership, and require documented arrangements for Capacity Building.

The document mandates periodic self-assessment against Regional Universities, disclosure of material information to University Administration, and corrective action where institutional performance falls short of the stated expectations.

Implementation Pathway

Implementation will proceed through phased institutional adoption, supported by professional development, shared guidance and a common reporting calendar established by University Administration.

Institutions are expected to appoint a lead authority for implementation, adapt the framework to local context, and report progress to University Administration in line with the prescribed cycle.

Roles and Responsibilities

Heads of institutions bear overall responsibility for embedding Regional Universities, supported by designated coordinators, academic bodies and administrative units within each institution.

Clear allocation of responsibility is expected at institutional level, with University Administration acting as the coordinating authority for evaluation, escalation and cross-institutional learning.

Performance Monitoring

Monitoring covers both compliance and quality, combining documented evidence with stakeholder feedback to build a complete picture of institutional performance over time.

Way Forward

This document is designed to evolve with institutional experience. Feedback from stakeholders will shape refinements, ensuring that the framework remains practical, proportionate and fit for purpose.
