Preconditions

Prior to implementation, institutions should confirm readiness in respect of Mergers, Acquisitions, designate the officers responsible, and document any existing arrangements that will be retained or replaced.

Implementation Steps

Institutions should first designate accountability, then prepare supporting documentation, brief staff, apply the arrangements and schedule a formal review of the resulting practice.

1. Appoint a lead officer and notify University Administration of the designated contact.
2. Conduct an initial readiness review against Mergers, Acquisitions.
3. Brief governing bodies, staff and relevant stakeholders on the expectations.
4. Apply the arrangements and maintain the required records.
5. Report on a regular cycle and act on review findings.

Allocation of Responsibility

University Administration coordinates implementation and reviews institutional returns, while institutions manage day-to-day application, maintain records and respond to queries from stakeholders.

Operating Steps

Operational practice must follow an auditable sequence: application or initiation, verification, decision, communication, recording and, where applicable, renewal or extension.

Reporting Requirements

A consolidated reporting cycle will allow University Administration to track performance across the sector and to identify emerging issues requiring guidance or intervention.

Way Forward

The success of this regulation rests on shared understanding and consistent application. University Administration stands ready to support institutions in implementing Mergers and looks forward to reviewing collective progress.
