To Whom It Applies

Covered entities are expected to align their internal procedures with the expectations set out here, adapting them only where local conditions or statutory requirements justify a documented variation.

Except where expressly stated otherwise, the guidance applies uniformly across University Administration, and institutions should treat it as the reference point for day-to-day decisions on Equality.

Eligibility and Preconditions

Implementation should be preceded by a readiness review covering Equality, resourcing and staff awareness, so that obligations are understood before they take effect.

Key Steps

Institutions should first designate accountability, then prepare supporting documentation, brief staff, apply the arrangements and schedule a formal review of the resulting practice.

1. Brief governing bodies, staff and relevant stakeholders on the expectations.
2. Apply the arrangements and maintain the required records.
3. Report on a regular cycle and act on review findings.
4. Appoint a lead officer and notify University Administration of the designated contact.
5. Conduct an initial readiness review against Equality, Diversity.

Responsibilities

Named officials within each institution are accountable for operational application, for reporting variances, and for ensuring that staff understand and follow the expectations set out in Equal Opportunity and Diversity Regulation.

Procedure

Institutions should maintain a written procedure capturing each step of the process, including eligibility checks, documentation, decision-making and appeals, consistent with the provisions of Equal Opportunity and Diversity Regulation.

Reporting

Institutions are expected to retain supporting evidence for the reporting period and to make it available for verification by University Administration or its authorised representatives.

Way Forward

The success of this regulation rests on shared understanding and consistent application. University Administration stands ready to support institutions in implementing Equality and looks forward to reviewing collective progress.
