Readiness

Prior to implementation, institutions should confirm readiness in respect of Attendance, Leave, designate the officers responsible, and document any existing arrangements that will be retained or replaced.

Implementation Steps

A staged approach is recommended, beginning with assessment and planning, followed by rollout, monitoring of early experience, and refinement in light of feedback before wider adoption.

1. Conduct an initial readiness review against Attendance, Leave.

2. Brief governing bodies, staff and relevant stakeholders on the expectations.
3. Apply the arrangements and maintain the required records.
4. Report on a regular cycle and act on review findings.
5. Appoint a lead officer and notify University Administration of the designated contact.

Responsibilities

University Administration coordinates implementation and reviews institutional returns, while institutions manage day-to-day application, maintain records and respond to queries from stakeholders.

Operational Procedure

Operational practice must follow an auditable sequence: application or initiation, verification, decision, communication, recording and, where applicable, renewal or extension.

Submission Cycle

A consolidated reporting cycle will allow University Administration to track performance across the sector and to identify emerging issues requiring guidance or intervention.

Way Forward

Effective implementation of Student Attendance and Leave Rules will depend on sustained institutional commitment and close coordination between University Administration and the sector. Institutions are encouraged to embed the arrangements described here into their normal planning and review cycles.
