Issued in 2022 by University Administration under reference UA/RUL/2022/025, this rules notification establishes the arrangements supporting Student Attendance and Leave Rules. In scope are Attendance, Leave, Students, together with related expectations for institutions and stakeholders.

Background and Scope

Stakeholders across University Administration have emphasised the importance of Attendance as a foundation for credible, well-governed higher education. The present rules notification responds to that expectation by setting out clear, practical direction.

Stakeholders across University Administration have emphasised the importance of Attendance as a foundation for credible, well-governed higher education. The present rules notification responds to that expectation by setting out clear, practical direction.

Object and Purpose

The purpose of this document is to establish a consistent basis for Attendance, Leave across University Administration-affiliated institutions, to clarify responsibilities, and to define the outcomes expected of every stakeholder.

This rules notification is intended to translate the objectives of Student Attendance and Leave Rules into actionable direction for institutions, officials and other stakeholders, ensuring that Attendance is pursued in a structured and accountable manner.

Goals

The principal objectives are to strengthen Attendance, harmonise institutional approaches to Leave, and establish measurable indicators through which progress can be tracked and reported.

In pursuing these objectives, University Administration intends to create conditions in which institutions can deliver consistent, high-quality outcomes in respect of Attendance, Leave, Students, with clear lines of accountability.

Scope

The provisions apply to all universities and colleges under University Administration. Sector partners, including employers and professional bodies, are expected to support implementation within their respective spheres.

This document covers all activities and stakeholders associated with Attendance within institutions affiliated to University Administration, together with arrangements for monitoring, review and reporting of outcomes.

Principal Provisions

Key provisions establish minimum standards for Attendance, define the responsibilities of institutional leadership, and require documented arrangements for Leave.

Institutions are required to integrate Attendance, Leave into annual planning cycles, designate accountable officers, and maintain records demonstrating compliance with the expectations set out here.

Implementation Arrangements

Institutions are expected to appoint a lead authority for implementation, adapt the framework to local context, and report progress to University Administration in line with the prescribed cycle.

Implementation will proceed through phased institutional adoption, supported by professional development, shared guidance and a common reporting calendar established by University Administration.

Accountability Framework

Clear allocation of responsibility is expected at institutional level, with University Administration acting as the coordinating authority for evaluation, escalation and cross-institutional learning.

Heads of institutions bear overall responsibility for embedding Attendance, supported by designated coordinators, academic bodies and administrative units within each institution.

Monitoring and Evaluation

Progress will be monitored through annual institutional returns, targeted reviews and outcome indicators maintained centrally by University Administration. Findings will inform guidance and, where necessary, corrective measures.

Way Forward

The success of this rules rests on shared understanding and consistent application. University Administration stands ready to support institutions in implementing Attendance and looks forward to reviewing collective progress.
